

INTERNET SAFETY TIPS

Create a video, poster, infographic, or think of your own creative way to teach younger kids about internet safety.

BEFORE YOU GET STARTED

Estimated Time: 1 hour

Stuff you'll need:

- Various Materials – phone, camera, poster board, markers, etc.

Parent/Guardian Considerations: Girls should ask permission before using any materials. There is always a risk when youth go online. Parent/guardians may choose to review house rules for internet use.

THE FUN PART

1. Research internet safety tips.

Tip: Check out Safekids.org for tons of safety tips! You can also use the Girl Scout Internet Safety Pledge.

2. Decide how you want to teach these things to younger kids. Do you want to create a PSA? A poster? An infographic? Create a worksheet?

TIP: Find out how to create an effective Public Service Announcement HERE and create an eye-catching infographic HERE.

3. Gather your supplies and get creative!
4. Share your creation with someone younger!

Way to go! You did it!
